

CLUB POLICY ON REFUND OF REGISTRATION FEES AND COACHING COURSES FOR COACHES AND CLUB OFFICIALS

Circumstances for Refunds of Registration Fees or Coaching Courses:

Lane Cove Football Club (LCFC) Policy provides that in the following circumstances

1. LCFC players who coach a MiniRoos, Junior or a Senior team throughout the season are entitled to have their own registration fees returned to them at the completion of the football season. This applies where that coach:

- is as a minimum, an FFA Accredited Junior or Grassroots Coach,
- does not play in that team,
- has no child or sibling in that team,
- attends at least 80% of both the games and training sessions, and
- is not receiving other financial incentives from LCFC or that team for their coaching.

2. LCFC players who coach a MiniRoos, Junior or Senior team throughout the season, which they play in, or have a child or sibling in that team, are entitled to have 50% of their own registration fees returned to them at the completion of the football season. This applies where that coach:

- is as a minimum, an FFA Accredited Junior or Grassroots Coach,
- attends 80% of both the games and training sessions, and
- is not receiving other financial incentives from LCFC or that team for their coaching.

3. Either the registration fees of the eldest child of a LCFC Board member or the registration fees of a playing Board member, will be returned to the member at the completion of the season. This requires:

- attendance of at least 75% of Board meetings, and
- a full season of commitment to the Board

4. LCFC will reimburse LCFC coaches who attend FFA, Football NSW or NSFA accredited coaching courses up to Youth Level, the cost levied by those associations for that licence. Where those coaching qualifications are immediately used in coaching a LCFC team, reimbursement will occur immediately. Where the coaching qualification is used in coaching a LCFC team/squad in the season after attending the course, the reimbursement will be paid at the time of completion of the season.

Process for Refunds

Applications for refunds and reimbursements under this policy, should be made directly to LCFC (email: admin@lcfc.com.au). In all cases it is expected that registration payments/coaching fees will be paid prior to commencement of the season/training. Everyone is subject to this Policy, including club officials.
